

The First Presbyterian Church of Batesville, Arkansas is in the midst of searching for a new minister. Batesville is a vibrant community of 11k residents nestled in the foothills of the Ozarks. Founded in 1821, Batesville is a historic town as the oldest remaining township in Arkansas, and since 1842 the First Presbyterian Church of Batesville has enjoyed a long established and storied presence within its community. From the Presbyterian Day School established in 1954 to Lyon College, which was founded by the church in 1872 as Arkansas College, to the various and ongoing community outreach programs, First Presbyterian Church of Batesville is a long-standing staple in a beautiful and well-established town.

The First Presbyterian Church of Batesville is searching for a minister that will foster the relationship between God and the congregants. The members of the church appreciate a minister that will challenge them in faith and acts; as well as a leader that will help guide their acts of service and shepherd them on their faith journeys. If this opportunity to serve as a vital role to a pillar of a historic community interests you, then please search for The First Presbyterian Church of Batesville's Ministry Discernment Profile (ID# 10354) on the Church Leadership Connection (CLC) website. If you do not have an active account and are unable to apply on the CLC, you may reach the church directly by contacting Clark Baker, the Chair of the Pastor Nominating Committee, at (479)799-5306 or by email at baker.clark@yahoo.com.
